

Please do not weaken the "no-call" laws of the individual states. WI has a wonderful law and it has meant more peace for my family. We are not getting calls during meal times or at my son's bedtime. I can now read him a story without constant phone calls peppering our time together. Please let states make their own laws regarding no-call regulations. Thank you.